

The martingale does not exist. Be careful what you do.

*It is in the figure above that you begin your work.

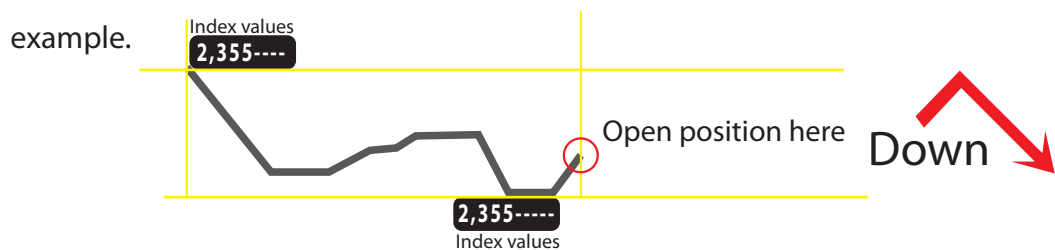

What you have to remember at the beginning is the worm.

Taking a position on the volatility index 75 is very easy.

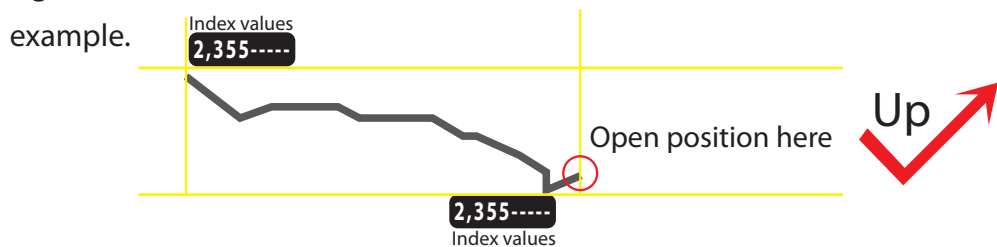

2 SIMPLE STEPS BEFORE RETAINING THE SECRET NUMBER.

HERE THE CONFIGURATION IS ALMOST THE SAME. IT'S THE SECRET NUMBERS THAT DIFFERENTIATE OPEN POSITION

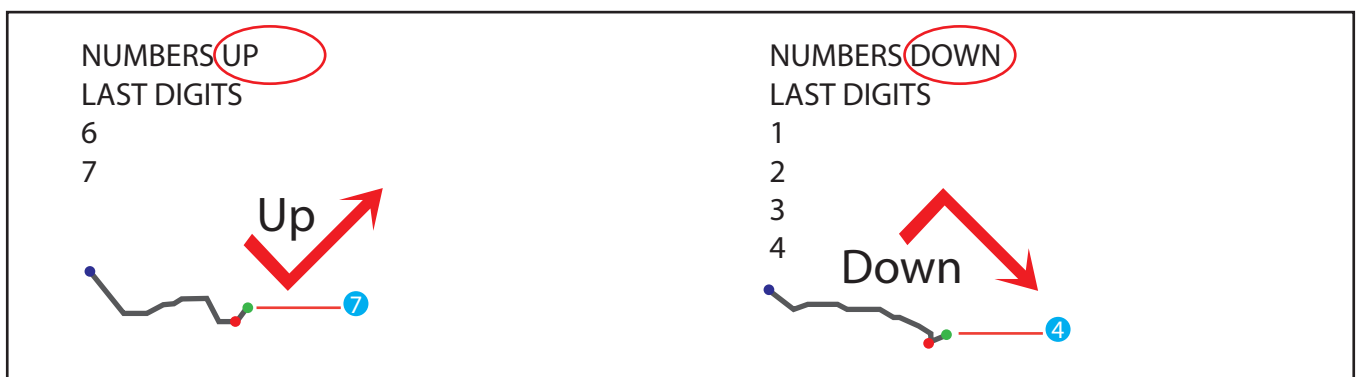

1 step : when you take position Down. The worm must go down, at the lowest. and the index values don't change.

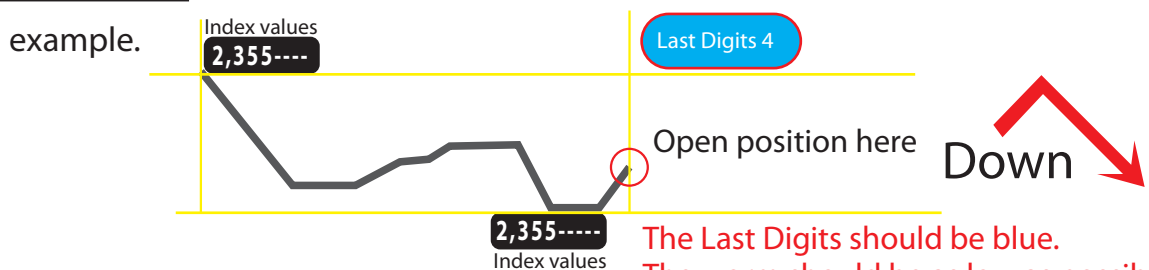

2 step: when you take position Up . The worm must go down, at the lowest. and the index values don't change.

HERE ARE THE SECRET NUMBERS

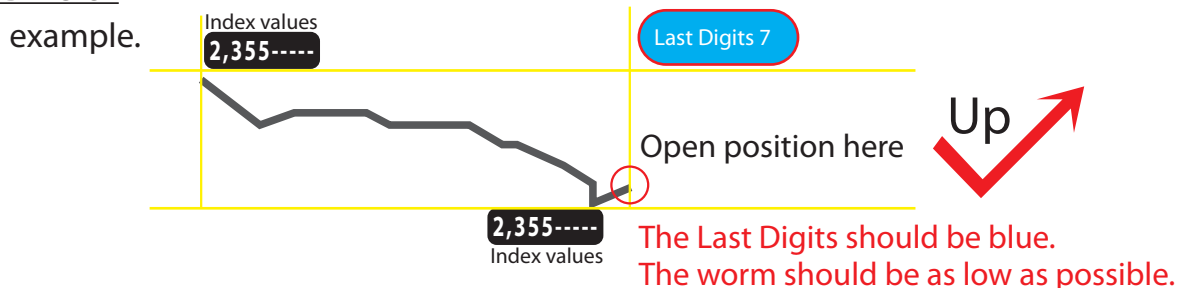

NUMBERS DOWN

When the red point is at its lowest. afterwards it indicates the number 4 upwards in blue. you take Down.

NUMBERS UP

When the red point is at its lowest. afterwards it indicates the number 7 upwards in blue. you take Up.

Do not use the same secret number twice in the day.
Example: if you operate with 7, you no longer use during the day and you must wait 24 hours before using.
